Local Group Wears National Pledge Pins For First Time

Five Sisters Became Alpha Xi Delta Pledges In Ceremony Last Week

For the first time in Bowling Green history, students today were wearing the pledge pins of a national sorority.

Thirty-nine members of Five Sister sorority became pledges of Alpha Xi Delta during a candlelight ceremony Friday night in the sorority house lounge.

The coeds and several other undergraduates who were unable to be present but who will become members of the national April 17 at a joint initiation-installation service. The Bowling Green chapter will be installed 50 years to the day after the founding of Alpha Xi.

Bowling Green alumnae conducted the pledging ceremony. All alumnae and undergraduates wore white dresses. The students received rose corsages, pledge pins, and ribbons of sorority colors—double blue and gold. The ribbons are to be worn three days after pledging.

An informal party at the Falcon's Nest followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Grant McQuown, an Alpha Xi alumna, entertained the pledges and local Five Sister alumnae at a tea at her home Saturday afternoon.

Other local Alpha Xi members—Mrs. Joseph Glander, Mrs. Jesse J. Currier, Mrs. Kenneth McFall, Mrs. Ray Moyer, Miss Hazel Mercer, and Miss Margaret Smith—assisted the hostess.

The dining room table was decorated with a bowl of pink roses and pink tapers which were burning. Both tea and coffee were served.

I.M. Department To Offer First Pre-Induction Program

First pre-induction program sponsored by a college intramural department in conjunction with the American Legion will start Thursday, March 25, at the University.

Gene Thomas, student intramural director, said his department was the first of its kind in the nation to offer the 10-week course outlined by the Legion.

He said any male student or faculty member may enroll for the course and attend the initial meeting at 7 p.m. on March 25 in the Men's Gymnasium. There will be no charge.

The weekly meetings—devoted to lectures and demonstrations—will concern such things as army discipline, courtesy, history and administration, branches, and guns.

Speakers have not been chosen, Thomas said. Larry Holley is chairman of the American Legion committee working with him.

Each class meeting is to last one and a half hours. However, if there is a sufficient demand for drill in addition to that given in regular physical education courses, those interested may stay around for a double period.

The Legion course has been divided into three parts—lecture, military drill, and physical fitness. Thomas believes most students are getting adequate preparation in military drill and physical fitness in the compulsory classes.

He said the course will combine the best features of the Legion program and the Victory Corps for high school students.

Extemp Speakers Represent B. G. In State Contest

Four extemporaneous speakers to represent Bowling Green in the state contest Saturday at Delaware were chosen in an all-campus elimination.

Bob Morgan of Bowling Green and Allen Bechtel of North Baltimore were tops in the men's division and Mildred Geiger of Attica and Marilyn Smith of Sioux Falls, S. D., in the women's.

Each of the eight participants was permitted two hours' preparation after drawing for his subject.

Take Vergil's Advice—Rumors Are Dangerous Until Verified

Vergil once said, "Rumor has a hundred tongues, a hundred mouths, and a voice of iron!" Never before has this statement had more meaning than it has today.

A war period is a difficult one for all concerned, and a time when we should be particularly careful to weigh every word that we utter. During the past semester and especially during the past few weeks, there have been many rumors stealing about our campus. Rumors had the Army Reserve in camp two months ago; rumors had Bowling Green students leaving for home as hundreds of Navy men occupied our campus; rumors had every student enrolled feasting on various morsels of gossip that were rapidly lowering the moral of our student body.

Certainly we are all mature enough that it is not necessary to inaugurate a 'zip-your-lip' campaign. Stop that rumor before it starts. If this is impossible to do, then verify the rumor with some responsible University official. We say 'responsible' because many of our faculty members are to blame for many of the rumors that have grown so rapidly on our campus.

Nothing can do more to disorganize and demoralize our Student Body than vicious rumors. Take Vergil's advice and beware of rumors in any form!—DK

Sure, And It's A Fine Day To Be Wearing The Green

"Did your mother come from Ireland, sure there's something"—oh, pardon the vocal shanigans, (that's Irish for "corn") but our St. Patrick's Day mood hasn't worn off as yet. Seems as though each seventeenth of March finds us frantically searching through the twigs of our family tree for an O'Toole, O'Reilly or even a Murphy, to proudly claim, if only for one day! But, whether successful or not, we still go for "the wearing of the green," shamrocks, and shootin' the blarney, like any true Emerald Isle-er. The only trouble is, that in the rush we usually forget to give any notice to the real reason for this particular holiday—ye goode St. Patrick, himself! So, being definitely on the blank side concerning the matter, we resolved to fare forth and gather what knowledge we could, pertaining to his life and varied accomplishments.

To begin with, he was born in the fourth century, B.G.R. (before gas rationing). At the age of seven he was kidnapped by pirates, and sold into slavery as a shepherd in Ireland. Finally, after ten years he escaped to France, took refuge in a monastery and, at length, was ordained bishop. Returning to Ireland, he went to work ridding Killarney of everything evil from serpents to pagan priests.

From there on, the legends are a bit vague, but 'tis said that he could put a curse on anything he desired, and contaminate the land, so that unwanted creatures would be forced to vacate, but quick! His will was strong as steel, and he did not rest until Ireland was free of the heathen Druids.

But where did the shamrocks come in? Well, it's this way; St. Patrick used this flower as a symbol of all the mysteries of the universe, and always kept it with him as he taught the people.

Of course, the modern way of celebrating St. Patrick's Day doesn't seem to have much to do with the man himself, who lived almost 2,000 years ago, but his spirit will never die; not while there are Pats and Mollys and Mikes, Officer O'Flannagan on the corner, and—Irish stew!

Waves And Spars Offer Positions To College Women

Applications are now acceptable for enlistment in the WAVES of the Naval Reserve and the SPARS of the Coast Guard Reserve, according to the Naval Recruiter on campus last week. Applicants must be between the ages of 20 and 36.

Here's what awaits the woman who enlists in the WAVES or the SPARS: (1) Educational courses in College, (2) an opportunity for advancement with pay up to $126 per month, (3) free medical and dental care, (4) $200 worth of clothes free, (5) a chance to serve the United States government.

Those women who can qualify may submit their applications or apply in person at the Navy Recruiting Station, Post Office Building, Fremont, Ohio. The Navy Recruiter will be on the campus again tomorrow to answer any questions women may wish to ask regarding the WAVES or the SPARS.

Gerry Bircher Named Stage Manager For Next Play

"Guest In The House" Will Be Presented In University Auditorium March 25, 26

Gerry Bircher has been named stage manager of "Guest in the House," the next production of the University Players, according to Professor Elden T. Smith, director of the play. "Guest in the House," a thriller last year on Broadway, will be presented here next week, March 25 and 26 with Jo Lee Echelberger and Dick Gail in the leading roles.

Assisting Gerry Bircher in her duties of stage manager are Anna Mae Thomas and Fletcher Shoup. Phil Miles, technical director, has designed the single set necessary for the play.

The action takes place in the rustic-decorated living room of the Proctors. Several doors, an elaborate staircase, and wood paneling have created quite a problem due to the difficulty in obtaining lumber. Bruce Seigenthaler will direct the construction of the set in his position of building carpenter.

Dorothy Main has the task of collecting the numerous props for the show. Lights are in charge of David Thompson. M. E. Williams, who designed the costumes for "The Man Who Came to Dinner," has charge of that department again.

Sounds play an important part in setting the mood of "Guest in the House." During much of the action a phonograph plays off-stage, to say nothing of a thunder-storm which continues through an entire scene. Dick Herring will be in charge of making these sounds.

The business manager of "Guest in the House" is Bill Thompson.

Prof. Smith said that he was still searching for a girl to assist with lighting effects.

Kenneth McFall, new Dean of Freshmen, took up his duties at the University recently. He was formerly a member of the faculty at Mount Union College.

Madame Suzanne Silvercruys, Noted Sculptor, To Close Wood County Forum Program Sunday

A lecture-demonstration by Madame Suzanne Silvercruys, noted woman sculptor, will close the Wood County Public Forum series for the current season, Sunday, March 21, at 3 p.m. in the Bowling Green High School Auditorium.

Mme Silvercruys believes that art is the one international medium that all people everywhere understand and appreciate. "Art has no nationality," she says, "art belongs to all people. It speaks a universal language."

Herself a Belgian, the youngest daughter of the late president of the Belgian Supreme Court, Mme. Silvercruys has modelled the famous in England, France, Canada, her own Belgium, and the United States.

Herbert Hoover, who was then Secretary of Commerce and the former relief administrator of Belgium, was one of her first distinguished subjects. The portrait bust she modelled of him now occupies a place of honor in the library of the University of Louvain in Belgium.

She has recently completed the busts of the Dionne Quintuplets and Dr. Alan Roy Dafoe. Mme. Silvercruys is the only sculptress to have the quints as living models.

Among her other noted works are the Zonta Club's aviation trophy to Amelia Earhart; the Cyrus B. K. Curtis Memorial Plaque which hangs in the Poor Richard Club of Philadelphia; and the Queen Astrid Group in Hasselt, Belgium. Her head of the late Lord Tweedsmuir has just been acquired by the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

In recognition of her genius as a sculptor, France has made her an Officier d'Academie and the British Government has given her its Coronation Medal. In the United States she has won many prizes and competitions.

Though she paints, is an accomplished pianist, a playwright, and the author of a widely read biography, "Suzanne of Belgium," Mme. Silvercruys believes that sculpture is one of the highest forms of artistic expression because it "reproduces all dimensions."

In order that a large audience may enjoy the Silvercruys lecture and become acquainted with the Forum program, the officers of the Wood County Public Forum are announcing that each season ticket holder is entitled to bring one guest without additional fee except the payment of the federal tax.

Naval Reserve Men To Meet Tomorrow

There will be a meeting of all men in the Naval Reserve, and all men interested in enlisting in Class V-12 of the Naval Reserve, Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in Room 303 A, according to Registrar John W. Bunn.

This meeting will concern the test to be given all men in V-1 and all men interested in V-12 on April 2. This examination will be conducted by Dean Conklin and all men who would like to enlist in V-12 are urged to leave their names with Dean Conklin or Registrar Bunn today or tomorrow at the latest.

During the past week, postal cards were sent to all Naval Reservists who did not make a 2.0 average. These men met with Registrar Bunn to fill out special application blanks. Postal cards were also sent to Naval Reservists in order that they might fill out application blanks to secure Naval Registration cards, which are similar to the draft card now carried by all men registered with local draft boards. These registration cards carry one fingerprint of the bearer and are signed by Navy officials.

Spring And Fall Elections?

Spring elections will soon be the major topic of conversation on the Bowling Green campus. Within a few weeks, the Student Body will trek to the polls to cast their ballot for the candidates of their choice. At this time the May Queen, her attendants, Daisy Mae, Lil' Abner, and various class officers will be elected to represent the students of our University.

This year, probably more so than any year in the past, it will be advisable for us to elect a May Queen, her court, Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner. Why do we say this? Simply because an election of this sort will keep alive those customs and traditions that our Allied Armies are now fighting to keep for us; an election like this will keep democracy burning at home. If we fail to keep democracy alive in college elections and on other such small scale plans, then certainly we cannot expect it to flourish elsewhere!

However, this year it would seem advisable not to hold an election of class officers due to the uncertainty of world conditions. At the same time it is doubtful whether or not many of the students who would be named to office at this time would return to the University next fall. If this should be the case, as it probably would be, it would then be necessary to hold another election as soon as classes took up next fall.

To save time and trouble, it is then suggested that the May Day and Sadie Hawkins' Day elections be held as usual, but that the class elections be postponed until next fall. In this way, all students named to office next fall would be in school for the year and there would be no need for two separate elections.

This is only a suggestion but we feel that it has many good points. The choice is up to you!—DK

Hats Off To Coach Glander

This week the hat is off to Coach Joe Glander and his very successful Falcon swimming team. This year, swimming the toughest schedule in the history of the University, the Bowling Green natators garnered six wins while only losing two contests.

This past season, the Bowling Green swimmers had their first taste of Big Ten competition when they defeated the Indiana University when they defeated the Indiana University squad. Other wins were scored over such strong teams as Penn, Case, Western Reserve, Wittenberg, Oberlin, and Cincinnati. The team lost only to Kenyon and Michigan State.

In his first year as swimming coach, Joe Glander is to be highly complimented for the fine job that he did in getting the team into shape. Not only was the name of Bowling Green State University given wide publicity throughout the state as a result of our past swimming season, but the Falcon team was rated as one of the strongest in this part of the country.

To every member of the team goes the sincere thanks of the Student Body. You have continued to make Bowling Green athletic squads feared by the other colleges and universities in the state and at the same time have brought fame to our University. Thanks again, and the best of luck next season!—DK

BLANCHE LeBEAU

A young man wandered into a tennis tournament and sat down on the bench.

"Whose game?" he inquired. A shy young thing sitting next to him looked up hopefully.

"I am," she replied.

Then there was the one about the man who went out with a model and told his wife that he was sitting up with a chic friend.

"I run things in this house," said the husband as he continued to push the vacuum cleaner around.

The haughty senior girl sniffed disdainfully as the tiny freshman cut in. "And just why did you have to cut in when I was dancing?"

The freshman hung his head with shame. "I'm sorry," he said. "But I'm working my way through college, and your partner was waving a $5.00 bill at me."

A kiss that speaks volumes is seldom a first edition.

"I hear the faculty is going to stop necking on the campus."

"Hm. Next thing you know they'll be wanting the students to stop too."

She was only an undertaker's daughter but how she could lay them out.

He saw her dashing from her car

And up to her he sped. "May I help you to alight?"

"I do not smoke," she said.

"I've just learned that John can't bear children," sobbed the coed.

"Well," answered her homely sister, "You can't expect a man to do everything."

And then there was the midget who wanted to become a short WAVE.

But Mother, I only stayed for a second.

Nonsense, I distinctly heard the third, fourth, and fifth.

YANK IN ENGLAND SAYS . . .

Hamburgers, Cokes, Ice Cream Are Thing We Miss Most

Hamburgers, Coca-Cola, and ice cream—those are the "little things we miss most," Sgt. Joe Freeman of Sandusky, a 1942 graduate, wrote Dr. Frank J. Prout, University president, from England.

"My brother sent me a copy of the Bee Gee News, which I received last week. I'm not exaggerating one bit when I say I literally devoured it word for word, especially those advertisements for hamburgers and milk shakes," Sgt. Freeman said.

"It is amazing how many commonplace dishes in America are unheard of over here. To the English people, we Yanks at home apparently exist wholly on hamburgers, Coca-Cola, and ice cream. Perhaps they wouldn't be far wrong if they should visit the Falcon's Nest but, to us over here, those are the 'little things' that we miss most!

"We get our share of dancing in, but only with great difficulty can we manage to guide these English girls around the dance floor. They have a warped conception of American 'swing' music, especially the dance tempos. Yet, on the other hand, nearly every one of the girls we've met so far can dance the rhumba, conga, tango, and many of the supposedly typical 'American' dance steps.

"I've been here several months and I'm getting along quite well. At first I had difficulty getting used to English currency, the very, very black 'black-outs,' and the true English speech.

"Please don't suppose that we are unhappy or uncomfortable over here. On the contrary, we are very pleased to have English literature and history that we've studied about unfold before our eyes. But, of course, like all soldiers, we're rather impatient about getting into action and, above all, getting back home to all the things we miss—big, little, male, and FEMALE."

"Random Harvest" Will Open Sunday At The Cla-Zel

Hedy Lamarr appears in one of the most exciting roles in her entire screen career, teamed with Walter Pidgeon and playing the sultry jungle charmer, Tondelayo, in "White Cargo," which is playing at the Cla-Zel Theatre today and tomorrow.

As the fascinating mysterious native siren she captivates Richard Carlson and precipitates a stark drama of human emotions, set deep in a jungle rubber plantation in Africa. In this new picture Hedy is twice as 'Lamarrvelous' in her lurid — by the way, a lurid is a Sarong with allure!

All Europe ablaze with the blitz — and in the midst of it two Americans in love, trying to pull one another out of peril—that's the exciting idea of "Once Upon a Honeymoon," which opens as half of the double feature Friday and Saturday. Ginger Rogers and Cary Grant have the starring roles. William Boyd takes over as Hopalong Cassidy in the other half of the double bill in "Lost Canyon."

Opening Sunday for a five day run is "Random Harvest," one of the strangest love stories ever enacted on the screen. Greer Garson, who just won the Academy Award for 1942, co-stars with Ronald Colman in the picture. It is a romance of an amnesia victim and a woman whose devotion finally unravels the tangled skein of his memory. The picture was adapted from the best-selling novel by James Hilton.

Both the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Young, 134 Lehman Avenue, are in the service.

Ensign HARRY YOUNG, who was commissioned February 17 at the Columbia University Midshipman's School, was home on leave until March 15, when he reported to Columbus to take a course in aircraft identification to be started at Ohio State University.

The ensign entered the Navy last fall after working for the U.S. Rubber Co. in Detroit. He was a chemistry major at Bowling Green State University, where he was graduated in 1941.

His sister, former teacher at Olney, near Toledo, had been employed at the Ravenna Ordnance Plant. She obtained a two-year elementary diploma from Bowling Green State University in 1931.

WALDO SHAWAKER, '41, was the "first" pilot of the bomber crew which sank one ship and shot down a Zero plane of the Japanese armada which met such a devastating defeat March 2 near New Guinea in the southwest Pacific. "The captain asked me the chief use of potassium permanganate. I gulped and guessed as a reducer. He said that was near enough and I almost fainted."

Pvt. Shellhammer, who took Professor Currier's photography course last semester, was a University freshman when drafted less than a month ago. He formerly worked in a photographic studio in Clyde, his home town.

Another former Bowling Green State University student, FORREST WELLER of Antwerp, also is in Army photography. He is at the Signal Corps photographic training center at Long Island City, New York.

WSGA Party, Inter-Frat Formal To Be Events Of Next Weekend

BY JO TRUE

Due to circumstances beyond control, Phratra sorority was forced to postpone the annual Shamrock Shuffle to Saturday, March 20.

On March 19 is the WSGA swimming party, which is the second in a series of all-girl parties that this organization is sponsoring. The first was a bridge party which was so successful that the girls decided to stage a tournament.

The swimming party promises to make a big splash in the social calendar, too. It's to be held in the Natatorium from 8 to 10 p.m., with a social hour and food in the Women's Lounge afterward. There will be a variety of swimming games and relays, with Mary Spooner acting as the big, protective life guard, for all those who aren't amphibian.

Ann Rothenberger is general chairman of the party. Helen Moser is in charge of refreshments, and Ardene Gottfried of publicity.

On Saturday the PiKA and Beta Gamma boys will swing out with ye olde annual spring formal, to be held in the Recreation Hall from 9 to 12. Mack Finch of Kenton is scheduled to play for the event.

General chairmen of the dance are Paul Myron and Bob Desseker. Under them are: Paul Smythe, Jim Sullivan, and Dave Thompson, decorations; Jack Conkel, programs; Ben Gaeth and Dale McOmber, refreshments; and Paul Myron, invitations.

The theme of the dance will center around spring with all its sweet romance. Everything's to be done in pastel and it promises to be a very ultra-affair, you lucky kids!

How Not To Dance In One Lesson

By RALPH KLEIN

Despite the fact that the venerable symphonic organization, namely the Kampus Kats, has rendered itself solvent as the result of that clarion call issued by "a board composed of your neighbors," we still have dances around this institution of higher learning. As a result, there are certain social obligations which are entailed despite rumor to the contrary.

Now it might be perfectly legal to account a certain blushing maiden by "come on babe, let's shuffle the muscle" or "let's get hep and work up a sweat" at the local high school canteen dispensary, but a college dance is a horse of a different color. The preferred invitation is "May I have this dance?"

Next, I give a little hint to those who are sponsoring the dance. If you are going to have a reception line, let the individuals of that line know ahead of time just when the dance is to start and if the dance is formal or not. There have been several slip-ups in this respect on this campus.

When refreshments are served, don't act as if you were doing the hundred in ten flat. Take your time, there is usually enough for all. Many cleaning bills will be avoided which are the result of spit punch.

Again there are many other obligations that a person should watch at a dance, and again most of these can be accomplished merely by not trying to "show off."

Fraternities

BETA GAMMA UPSILON

At its regular meeting the fraternity decided to support the inter-fraternity smoker which will be held in the near future. The purpose of this smoker is to promote cooperative fraternalism on the campus.

Bob Desseker has been appointed general chairman of the combined Beta Gamma Upsilon-Pi Kappa Alpha formal.

Members of the Five Sister sorority were entertained at a tea-dance in the recreation hall last Tuesday afternoon.

Dean Arch B. Conklin was a guest at the last meeting. He is the first in a series of speakers to the fraternity on problems confronting college men today.

DELHI

Plans are being made for a Delhi house party some time in the near future. Also another sorority tea-dance is being planned for March 25. The fraternity attended the YMCA skating party in a body.

FIVE BROTHERS

A birthday party for "Pop" Eckert was held at the house Monday night.

Alumni Brothers Dick Fruth, Bob Fruth, Elmer Solt, and Earl Brillhart visited the house over the week end.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

The Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity has started a plan of letter communication to brothers in service, following recommendation from the inter-fraternity council.

Norman Huffman will be departing March 30 to enter the Ohio State Dental School.

Zaugg Speaks In Findlay

Dr. Walter A. Zaugg, professor of education and director of the Bureau of Appointments, will give the Friday noon Lenten talk April 2 at the Harris Theater in Findlay. He spoke during a similar series there a year ago.

Progressing from the eight district tourneys, the four squads of Class A and B will tangle to decide this region's two representatives at the meeting of the four regional winners in Columbus next Saturday.

Highlighting the tourney will be the appearance of Wood county's Webster Scots. Coached by Falcon basketball captain of 1942, Mike Kish, the Scots have swept through the season undefeated, re-

I.M. Tourney Will Be Held April 5, 7, 8

"All volleyball teams should get their entry blanks immediately at the Intramural office," Gene Thomas said today. The volleyball contest will be held April 5, 7, and 8, in the Men's Gym. Entries close March 31. Drawings will be made April 5, in the Intramural office. If a group is not present at the time of the drawing, officials will do the drawing.

The faculty schedule for the spring program is now being planned. Any group desiring to engage the faculty in softball, should get in touch with the I.M. office at once.

Don't forget the Intramural dances every Monday in the Rec Hall. Come out and see if you don't have a swell time, from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

The Delhi (T) basketball team is now the undisputed victor in the fraternity basketball league after defeating the Five Brothers last week by the close score of 28-26. Members of the winning team include Dwight Cross, Bob Bertsch, Dick Lowry, John Tabler, Ward Pollock, and Captain Jim Gorbey.

Softball entries will not be accepted after 5 p.m. Thursday. Get your entries in if you want to participate in this popular spring peating last year's performance as a state entrant when they downed contenders in the Wood county and Fremont district tourneys.

Running from 12:30 to 9:00 p.m., Class B entrants. Wharton and the competition will start with Pettisville tangle at 12:30 as do Webster and Middle Point at 1:45. Following these preliminaries the Class A teams will take over at 3 when Port Clinton and Defiance meet. Lima Central and Toledo Woodward are scheduled to engage at 4:15.

The two winners of Class B play will meet for the privileged trip to Columbus at 7:30, as will the Class A victors at 9:00.

The next meeting will be held in room 101 of the Women's Building. All instruction will be given free by experienced rifle instructors but it will be necessary to charge $1.25 to cover the cost of ammunition and targets.

Second Rifle Class Starts

A second school of rifle instruction sponsored by the intramural department will start March 29.

Forty-eight were graduated a few weeks ago from the first basic course of its kind here. Registration was so large that many persons could not be accommodated.

Intramural Director Gene Thomas said the first meeting will be at 7 p.m. Monday, March 29, in room 100 of the Women's Building.

Only cost to those taking the course will be $1.25 for ammunition and targets.

Bowling Green Ends Up Fifth In State Race

By GENE JORDAN

It seems that although the basketball togs are locked away we have to take one last look at the record books. Toledo finished the season at the top of the State heap, and drew Manhattan College for their first Garden game next week. Toledo was followed by Capital, Akron, Wilberforce, and Bowling Green. Although the Falcons finished fifth in the State standings, they led the state in scoring with 1291 points. Following Bowling Green in scoring was Toledo and, surprising enough, Findlay. Surprising because, Findlay stood 28th in the State Standings. Bluffton was in the cellar of the standings without once breaking into the win column.

More acclaim came to Bowling Green this week when the AP announced its All-Ohio selections. Wyndol Gray received the most votes although many of the coaches had never seen him in action. The only other freshman selection on the first team was Bob Bolyard, Toledo Rocket star. Three seniors rounded out the team. Leo Mougus, Youngstown ace, who starred against the Falcons, Earl Fisher, Wittenberg, and Dave McDowell, Muskingum guard, were the others chosen for the honorary five.

Wyndol Gray was also honored on the Wayne U. second team this week. It seems that in everyone else's opinion Gray is good enough for any first team in the Middle West, most of the coaches also confirm this opinion. But Wayne played some large universities and all the first team births on Wayne's All Opponent team went to the members of these big name squads. Harold Gensiker of Western Michigan College, who was named on some All-American teams last year, was named captain of the team. Bob Myers, Dartmouth; Lee Knorek, Detroit U.; Tom Lucas, Akron U.; and Gail Bishop, Washington State; were the first five chosen by Wayne. Along with Wyndol Gray on the second team were Donald Cecil, Oregon State; Jim Olsen, Dartmouth; Charles Allen, Akron U.; and Lew Beck, also of Oregon State.

— All-Ohio —

Wyndol Gray, Falcon freshman scoring sensation, this week received the most votes by the Associated Press for a berth on the All-Ohio team.

Falcon Athletic Teams Have The Best Record In State

Bowling Green, which has a better sports record than any other Ohio college so far this year, prepared today for a curtailed spring program.

Athletic Director Harold Anderson said the Falcons will have intercollegiate competition this spring in track and perhaps baseball.

In football, cross country, basketball, and swimming, the University has suffered only one defeat at home—the 7-0 homecoming loss to Kent State gridgers.

Though the Falcons have met several colleges in more than one sport, no foe has downed Bowling Green twice this year.

Wearers of the Orange and Brown have won 36, lost 10, and tied one in their intercollegiate contests.

Bowling Green, which opened as a normal school in 1914 and became a University in 1935, never has had a better athletic season. Its record this year:

FOOTBALL—Won 6, lost 2, and tied one while scoring 135 points against 55 for opponents.

CROSS COUNTRY—Won 4 dual and one triangular meets and the Ohio Conference championship and finished second in the National A.A.U. Junior meet while scoring 167 against 681 for opponents.

BASKETBALL—Won 18 and lost 5 while scoring 1291 against 871 for opponents.

SWIMMING—Won 6 and lost 2 while scoring 403 against 292 for opponents.

Only victorious opponents were Kent and Ohio Wesleyan in football; Miami at the National A.A.U. Junior meet in cross country; Youngstown, Ohio University, Muskingum, Akron, and Dayton in basketball; and Kenyon at a dual meet and Michigan State at the Central Collegiate Conference meet in swimming.

Individual stars were: FOOTBALL—Wayne Bordner, junior from Tiffin Columbian and captain-elect, sensational pass-snatching end.

CROSS COUNTRY—Elmer McDonnell, sophomore from Toledo Waite, who broke the tape in every meet except the National A.A.U. Junior one at Oxford, where he finished third, and who, in the Ohio Conference meet at Ashland, clipped two seconds off the record set by Gil Dodds, famous distance runner now in divinity school at Boston.

BASKETBALL—Wyndol Gray, freshman from Akron South, who tossed in 503 points in 22 games to set the all-time Ohio college record. SWIMMING—Joe Racz, freshman from Bridgeport (Conn.) Bassick, who was high scorer.

In its first taste of Western Conference competition, Bowling Green conquered Indiana University 48-27 in swimming. Scheduling difficulties forced the Orange and Brown to withdraw from the Ohio Conference early in the winter.

Longest string of consecutive Falcon victories was 14 at the outset of the basketball season. The swimming team won every first place in its first three meets.

Harold Anderson, who came here after coaching University of Toledo cagers to the semifinals of the Madison Square Garden tournament a year ago, has not lost a home basketball game in three and a half years.

Bob Whittaker, former Sandusky High School coach, has suffered only three gridiron setbacks—two away, one at home—in his two seasons at Bowling Green.

This was the first year for Joe Glander to coach swimming. He had had previous experience in cross country here. Glander also is a former Sandusky teacher.

Anderson was graduated from Otterbein, Whittaker from Miami, and Glander from Ohio University.
